Said Ma-ry to John I tell all the folks

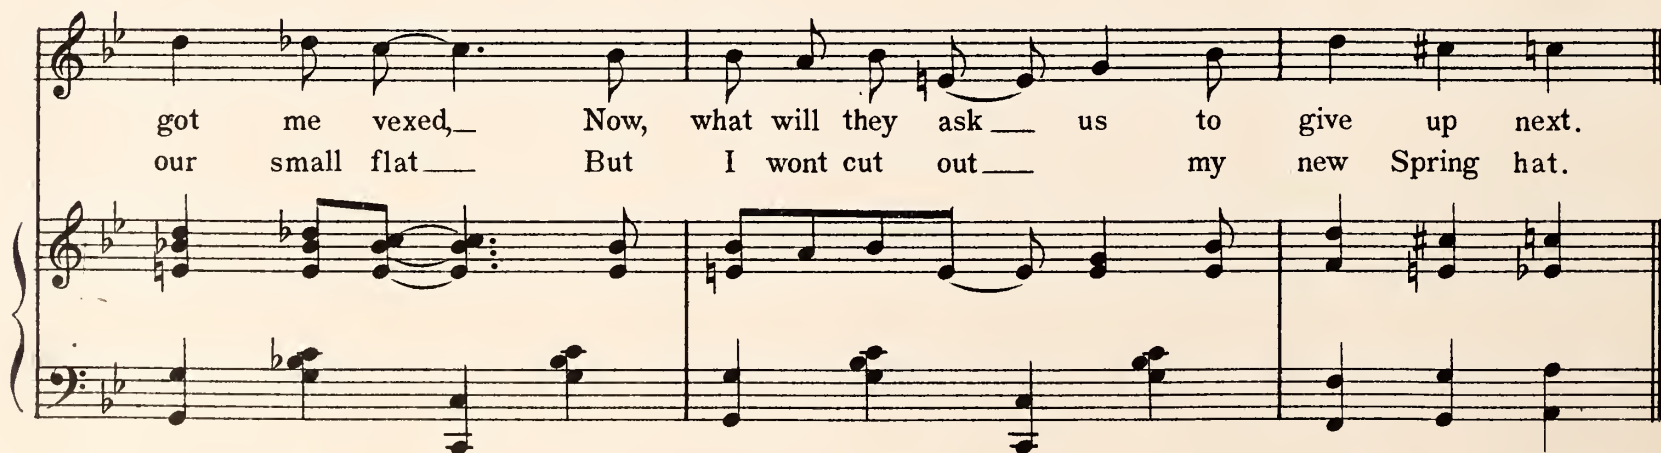

Till ready.

There's lots of things we must do with - out, — To go on like this — has I don't eat can - - dy you cut out smokes We do with-out heat — in got me vexed, — Now, what will they ask — us to give up next.

our small flat — But I wont cut out — my new Spring hat.

Chorus.

I can do with-out this,— I can do with-out that,— Do with-out sug - ar, do with - out fat — Do with-out sleep — and do with - out light —

Do with-out heat — and that is all right,— I'll keep ev - 'ry rule — and try to keep cool While the prices are soar - ing a - bove, — I'll do with-out meat, and I'll do with-out wheat, But I can't do with-out love. — I can love. —

"BOWERS SONGS TOUCH THE HEART"

READ THIS !!

Frederick V. Bowers has written songs of the better class for over twenty-five years and has a world-wide reputation of writing "home songs" that appeal to the lovers of clean, wholesome ballads. His compositions should be labeled "Songs of Merit", because they "touch the heart strings" of grandma as well as little brother, sis and mother.

Chorus (with feeling) ten

Want-ing you! — Want-ing you! — I am al-ways want-ing you. — Tell me dear, — Tell me, true —

Will the old love be the same? All day long There's a song — May be you have heard it too — Hear the call, — You are,

portando

AFTER you've heard everyone praise such masterpieces as the well known "Because," "Wait" and "Always," please be skeptical enough to ask your music dealer to play this beautiful song for you. We know you will sing it over and over again and never tire of this unusual melody that will live forever.

CHORUS

Come to me now when I need you, Bring back your heart and soul true, — Bring back the dream I was once in, — Bring back the love we were in —

Come with thy light to my eyes, dear, Come to my heart to be true to me, — Come to my heart to be true to me, — Come to my heart to be true to me, —

THERE is a pretty love song which the title in itself suggests. Thousands will picture this story in their own lives and find joy and happiness to soothe their tired brains while singing "Come to me now when I need you."

WHERE THE RIPPLING WATERS FLOW DOWN TO THE MILL

LYRICS AND MUSIC BY FREDERICK V. BOWERS

WRITER OF "BECAUSE," "ALWAYS," "WAIT," "WHEN I THINK OF YOU"

CHORUS (Plaintively)

I long to see the mil-lar at the Mill Wheel — I long to see the buck-et in the well — I long to see my mother in the door-way and I long to see the Miller's daughter — Nell — I long to take her in my arms and hold her — And ask her if the old love is gone

A PRETTY ditty of the olden type, with a jingle to its melody that will bring you back to the days when you sat on mother's knee and roamed through the hills and dells without any care or strife.

In to my life when all was bright You came like a ship one day — Out of my life in to the night like a dolce

ship you drifted a way — Gone are the tears and the wear-ay years I love you that's all I

A SURE gem which already has forced its way to the front with the best sellers. The melody will grow on you so, that it will actually ring in your ears. What is more beautiful than one of the lines in this song, "I love you that's all I say." Buy a copy and bring sunshine into your heart.
